The Helsinki metropolitan area offers about 12 000 hotel rooms in around 80 locations, ranging from first- class hotels to the more economical ones. During the summer time, there are also summer hostels available. Participants of the conference are recommended to make their hotel reservations well in advance as June is an active tourist season in Finland. The following hotels are located close to the conference venue where we have made a preliminary booking for the conference participants. However, there are many more options from which to choose (see e.g. www.myhelsinki.fi or www.booking.com)
